

The Sackler Conference for arts education

From the Margins to the Core?

Wednesday 24 – Friday 26th March 2010

Sackler Centre, V&A, London

www.vam.ac.uk/conferences

Join this international conference exploring the shifting roles and increasing significance of diversity and equality in contemporary museum and heritage policy and practice.

Key questions to be discussed include:

- How far have we embedded diversity into core business?
- The interconnections between different diversity strands
- The Museum's role in promoting social justice
- Key drivers for change

Fred Wilson, Photo by Barbara Thompson

Courtesy of Hood Museum of Art,
Dartmouth College

Guest Speakers include award winning author and Guardian journalist Gary Younge and conceptual artist Fred Wilson.

Wednesday 24 March, 09.30–19.30, (includes a performance and drinks reception)

Thursday 25 & Friday 26 March, 09.00–17.30 (optional social dinner £30 on Thursday)

£180 for three days, £120 for two days, £60 for one day, full fee

£144 for three days, £96 for two days, £48 for one day, concessions

£51 for three days, £34 for two days, £17 for one day, students

Bookings open from 7 December 2009

Call +44 (0)20 7942 2211 or book online at www.vam.ac.uk/conferences

Jointly organised with University of Leicester's School of Museum Studies

The Sackler Conference for arts education is generously funded by a grant from The Dr. Mortimer and Theresa Sackler Foundation

University of Leicester